Opening Hymn: Here I am to Worship

Light of the world

You stepped down into darkness

Opened my eyes, let me see

Beauty that made this heart adore You

Hope of a life spent with You

King of all days

Oh so highly exalted

Glorious in heaven above

Humbly You came to the earth You created

All for love's sake became poor

Here I am to worship

Here I am to bow down

Here I am to say that You're my God

You're altogether lovely

Altogether worthy

Altogether wonderful to me

Gloria:

Gloria, Gloria, in excelsis Deo!

Gloria, Gloria, in excelsis Deo!

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you,

we bless you,

we adore you,

we glorify you,

we give you thanks for your great glory,

Lord God, heavenly King,

O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,

Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,

you take away the sins of the world,

have mercy on us;

you take away the sins of the world,

receive our prayer;

you are seated at the right hand of the Father,

have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,

you alone are the Lord,

you alone are the Most High,

Jesus Christ,

with the Holy Spirit,

in the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

First reading (Jeremiah 20:10-13)

Jeremiah said:

I hear so many disparaging me, “Terror from every side!”

Denounce him! Let us denounce him!’ All those who used to be my friends watched for my downfall, ‘Perhaps he will be seduced into error.

Then we will master him and take our revenge!’

But the Lord is at my side, a mighty hero; my opponents will stumble, mastered, confounded by their failure; everlasting, unforgettable disgrace will be theirs.

But you, O Lord of Hosts, you who probe with justice, who scrutinise the loins and heart, let me see the vengeance you will take on them, for I have committed my cause to you.

Sing to the Lord, praise the Lord, for he has delivered the soul of the needy from the hands of evil men.

Responsorial Psalm

In your great love, answer me, O Lord.

It is for you that I suffer taunts, that shame covers my face,
that I have become a stranger to my brothers, an alien to my own mother’s sons.
I burn with zeal for your house and taunts against you fall on me.

The poor when they see it will be glad and God-seeking hearts will revive; for the Lord listens to the needy and does not spurn his servants in their chains.
Let the heavens and the earth give him praise, the sea and all its living creatures.

This is my prayer to you,
my prayer for your favour.

In your great love, answer me, O God, with your help that never fails:

Lord, answer, for your love is kind;

in your compassion, turn towards me.

Second reading (Romans 5:12-15)

Sin entered the world through one man, and through sin death, and thus death has spread through the whole human race because everyone has sinned. Sin existed in the world long before the Law was given. There was no law and so no one could be accused of the sin of ‘law-breaking’, yet death reigned over all from Adam to Moses, even though their sin, unlike that of Adam, was not a matter of breaking a law.

Adam prefigured the One to come, but the gift itself considerably outweighed the fall. If it is certain that through one man’s fall so many died, it is even more certain that divine grace, coming through the one man, Jesus Christ, came to so many as an abundant free gift.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Word was made flesh and lived among us:

to all who did accept him he gave power to become children of God.

Alleluia!

Gospel (Matthew 10:26-33)

Jesus instructed the Twelve as follows: 'Do not be afraid. For everything that is now covered will be uncovered, and everything now hidden will be made clear. What I say to you in the dark, tell in the daylight; what you hear in whispers, proclaim from the housetops.

'Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; fear him rather who can destroy both body and soul in hell. Can you not buy two sparrows for a penny? And yet not one falls to the ground without your Father knowing. Why, every hair on your head has been counted. So there is no need to be afraid; you are worth more than hundreds of sparrows.

'So if anyone declares himself for me in the presence of men, I will declare myself for him in the presence of my Father in heaven. But the one who disowns me in the presence of men, I will disown in the presence of my Father in heaven.'

We do not expect or presume any offertory, as you may well be giving to your usual parish, but if you are able to donate to us, we appreciate it very much and the link to online donations, standing orders and postal donations is www.bcys.net/donate

Communion Hymn: Run to the Father, by Cody Carnes

I've carried a burden for too long on my own	You saw my condition, had a plan from the start
I wasn't created to bear it alone	Your Son for redemption, the price for my heart
I hear Your invitation to let it all go	And I don't have a context for that kind of love
I see it now, I'm laying it down	I don't understand, I can't comprehend
And I know that I need You	All I know is I need You

*I run to the Father, I fall into grace I'm done with the hiding, no reason to wait
My heart needs a surgeon, my soul needs a friend So I'll run to the Father again and again and again and again*

My heart has been in Your sights
Long before my first breath
Running into Your arms
Is running to life from death
And I feel this rush deep in my chest
Your mercy is calling out Just as I am You pull me in
And I know I need You now

Recessional Hymn: Good Good Father by Casting Crowns

I've heard a thousand stories of what they think you're like But I've heard the tender whispers of love in the dead of night
And you tell me that you're pleased
And that I'm never alone

I've seen many searching for answers far and wide
But I know we're all searching For answers only you provide 'Cause you know just what we need Before we say a word

*You're a good good father It's who you are, it's who you are, it's who you are
And I'm loved by you It's who I am, it's who I am, it's who I am*

Because you are perfect in all of your ways
You are perfect in all of your ways
You are perfect in all of your ways to us
