Opening Hymn: Here I am, Lord

I, the Lord of sea and sky
I have heard my people cry
All who dwell in dark and sin
My hand will save
I who made the stars of night
I will make their darkness bright
Who will bear my light to them?
Whom shall I send?

I, the Lord of wind and flame
I will tend the poor and lame
I will set a feast for them
My hand will save
Finest bread I will provide
'Til their hearts be satisfied
I will give my life to them
Whom shall I send?

*Here I am, Lord
Is it I, Lord?
I have heard You calling in the night
I will go, Lord
If You lead me
I will hold Your people in my heart*

Gloria:

Gloria (clap, clap), Gloria (clap, clap) in excelsis Deo (repeat)

Lord God, Heavenly King,
peace you bring to us
We worship you, we give you thanks,
we sing our song of praise

Jesus, Saviour of all,
Lord God Lamb of God
You take away our sins, Oh Lord, have mercy on us all

At the Father's right hand,
Lord receive our prayer
For you alone are the Holy one and you alone are Lord

Glory Father and Son,
Glory Holy Spirit,
to You we raise our hands up high
We glorify your name

First Reading

A reading from the letter of St John

My dear friends we must love each other.
Love comes from God, and when we love each other,
it shows that we have been given new life.
We are now God's children, and we know him.
God is love, and anyone who doesn't love others has never known him.
God showed his love for us when he sent Jesus into the world to give us his life.
Dear friends, since God loved us so much, we must love one another.
God is love.
If we keep on loving others,
we will stay one in our hearts with God and he will stay with us.

Psalm: For the Beauty of the Earth by Brentwood Cathedral Choirs and St John Fisher Primary School, Loughton

For the beauty of the earth
For the beauty of the skies
For the love which from our birth
Over and around us lies
Over and around us lies

*Lord of all, to thee we raise
This our joyful hymn of praise*

For the beauty of the hour
Of the day and of the night
Hill and vale and tree and flower
Sun and moon and stars of light
Sun and moon and stars of light

For the joy of human love
Brother, sister, parent, child
Friends on earth and friends above
For all gentle thoughts and mild
For all gentle thoughts and mild

For each perfect gift of thine
To our race so freely given
Graces human and divine
Flow'rs of earth and buds of heav'n
Flow'rs of earth and buds of heav'n

Second Reading

A reading from the first letter of Paul to the Corinthians

Brothers and sisters: When we drink from the cup that we ask God to bless, it is sharing in the blood of Christ. When we eat the bread that we break, it is sharing in the body of Christ. By sharing in the same loaf of bread, we become one body, even though there are many of us.

Gospel

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew

That evening, after enjoying the feast and celebration together, Jesus took some bread, blessed it, broke it into small pieces and shared it with his friends, saying "This is my body. It will be given up for you."

In the same way he drank some wine from a cup and then passed the cup to his disciples, saying, "This is my blood. It is a sign of my love for you."

Jesus asked his friends to carry on meeting like this and sharing the bread and wine, just as he had done."

Give me joy in my heart, keep me praising,
Give me joy in my heart, I pray;

Sing hosanna to the King of kings.
Sing hosanna, sing hosanna,
Sing hosanna to the King*

Keep me serving till the break of day:

Post-Recessional: St Helen's School Song

This song is called 'Follow in the Footsteps', written by students at St Helen's, Brentwood with the help of Adam Saunders, a composer. The children singing on the recording are currently Year 6s.

*We will follow wherever he goes.
But where will He lead us?
Nobody knows!
So, come and join our journey,*

*Time to get on board.
And we'll follow in the footsteps,
Follow in the footsteps,
Follow in the footsteps of our Lord*
